We'll need to do some credit and other checks on you

If you apply for a credit product with us, for example a credit card, a loan or current account that offers an overdraft, we'll carry out a search of your credit file (and your Business credit file if you apply for a Business product) with a credit reference agency before we decide to lend money to you. This search, including details about your application, will be recorded on your credit file. For a short period, this may affect your ability to get credit elsewhere. If you make a joint application, the credit reference agencies will 'link' your records together. We'll look at these results and decide if it's suitable to open the account and offer credit where requested. If it's not, we'll decline your application and let you know. If we give you a credit card, a loan or a bank account, we'll also share information with credit reference agencies about how you manage your account.

You can find more information in the 'About your application and credit scoring' leaflet, available on our website.

Pre-Contractual Explanation

Understanding your personal loan agreement

What is this document?

We've given you this document to help you decide if a personal loan is right for you before you go ahead with it. If we've given this to you in person, you can take it away to read before you apply.

You should read through this and the Pre-Contract Credit Information we've given you before you apply. These documents have similar names but they contain different information, so it's important to read them both.

Any questions?

You can visit us in branch or call us on 0800 876 6386 if you'd like any more information or have any questions. We're happy to help.

Put simply

This is a summary of the key features and things you need to know about our personal loan. Please make sure you read this document along with all documentation provided to you. You should consider the information carefully before taking out a personal loan to make sure that it is right for you.

Is this personal loan right for your needs?

A personal loan from Santander is a loan for a fixed amount. It's repayable over a fixed period of time with interest charged at a fixed rate. The loan is unsecured which means that Santander won't take a charge over your property when you take out the loan.

If you take out a personal loan with us, you'll need to repay us the same amount each month. As long as you keep up with your repayments, you'll have fully repaid your loan by the end of the term.

Personal loans are generally for a medium duration. If you want to repay different amounts each month over a shorter period, other ways of borrowing might be more suitable – for example, a Santander overdraft or credit card.

You can't use the loan to pay for certain things, like household bills or cryptocurrency. A full list is set out in the Key Facts Document.

Put simply

A personal loan is a fixed amount borrowed from us which is repaid in equal, fixed, monthly repayments over an agreed period of time. As long as you don't miss any repayments, the loan is fully repaid at the end of the loan term.

A personal loan is more suitable for borrowing over a medium to long period of time.

Before applying you should check you can make each monthly repayment comfortably throughout the term of the loan.

There might be cheaper ways to borrow smaller amounts over a shorter period of time, such as a credit card or an overdraft.

What checks will we need to do if you apply for a personal loan with Santander?

If you apply for a loan, we'll do a search of your credit history with a credit reference agency. This will leave a record on your credit file.

We may decline your application if you give us any false information when you apply. We may also do this if there are issues with your credit score when we check your details with a credit reference agency.

If that happens, we'll give you details of the agency that we used when making our decision so you can contact them. For more information, a leaflet called 'About your application and credit scoring' is available on request.

Put simply

If you apply for a personal loan we'll do a credit check on you. This helps us decide whether to accept or reject your application.

When you apply, please make sure any information you give us is accurate. We might reject your application if you tell us something that isn't true.

How much will you need to pay?

You'll need to make repayments on the same day each month by Direct Debit. You'll pay a fixed amount each month (made up of the original loan amount and the interest charged).

Details about the number of repayments and the amount you'll need to pay each month are set out in your personal loan agreement. We'll also send you a statement every year setting out how much you've paid and the date your loan will end.

Put simply

All monthly repayments will be for the same amount.

Your credit agreement will show how much you need to pay in total and each month, and when your repayments are due. We'll send you a statement each year confirming the repayments you have made.

What happens if you don't keep up with your repayments?

If you don't make your monthly repayments on time, this could have serious impacts on you.

Please get in touch if you're struggling with your repayments. If you pay late or miss a repayment, we can:

- Ask you to repay the remaining loan amount back straight away.
- Use money you have in any other accounts held with us to pay off your outstanding balance.
- Charge you our reasonable costs in trying to collect the loan amount from you, including legal costs and costs finding you. You will have to pay these costs to us straight away.
- Sell your loan to a different company who will continue to try and collect the loan from you.
- Take legal action to recover what you owe us. This could include asking a court to order that, if a property you own is sold for any reason, some of the money you get from the sale is used to repay what you owe us.
- Give information about you and how you've managed your account to licensed credit reference agencies. This will affect your credit rating and might make it more difficult for you to borrow in future.

We'll usually let you know before we do any of these things.

Put simply

If you miss a repayment, we can collect the amount owed, including any interest, from other accounts you have with us. We'll also report this to credit reference agencies who'll record it on your credit file. This will affect your credit rating and might make it more difficult for you to borrow in future.

If you miss multiple repayments, we might take legal action against you. In the very worst case, we could ask a court to order that, if a property you own is sold for any reason, some of the money you get from the sale is used to repay what you owe us. We might also transfer your debt to a debt recovery company.

To avoid getting into this situation, please contact us if you're struggling to keep up with your repayments.

Can you repay your personal loan early?

If you wish to repay your personal loan early in full, you'll be required to repay the balance remaining of the original loan amount but you won't be required to pay all of the interest due over the remainder of the agreement.

You may repay your loan early by first making a settlement request. We'll calculate your settlement date and the amount you must repay and send you a settlement statement. We'll charge interest up to the date of settlement. We may make an additional charge on settlement of an extra 30 days interest.

If you repay part of your loan early, we'll shorten the term of your loan. Or, you can choose to keep the length of your loan and pay a lower amount each month. Just let us know what you want to do.

Put simply

You can repay all or part of the loan at any time.

Take a look at your credit agreement if you'd like to find out more about repaying early.

Can you change your mind?

You can withdraw from the agreement by writing to us or calling within the 'cooling off period'. That's within 14 days, starting the day after you sign the agreement. You don't need to give us a reason for this.

You'll need to:

1. Tell us that you want to withdraw. To do this, you can either call us on 0800 876 6386, or write to us at: Santander UPL Operations, Sunderland, SR43 4GX.
2. Repay everything you've borrowed within 30 days. The 30 days start the day after you tell us that you want to withdraw. You won't need to pay any interest if you change your mind during this time. If you're registered, you can repay using online banking or telephone banking.

Put simply

You have 14 days to decide if this is the right personal loan for you, starting from the day your loan account is opened.

If you decide you don't want your personal loan anymore, you'll have to pay back your outstanding balance. We won't charge you any interest or fees during the 14 day period.
